Crash investigation continues

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

An investigation into the plane crash that killed a 19-year-old man is continuing in Edmonton.

Lorn Yanik, air operations investigator with the Transportation Safety Board, said officials are continuing to gather evidence from the crash site and from an autopsy on the pilot.

"An investigation usually takes about 1 year before the results are released," Yanik said. "We like to do a really thorough investigation and try not to jump into any quick conclusions."

Glenn Perez Militsala was killed on impact when his Cessna 152 crashed in a farmer's field near the Bergen Road, north east of Didsbury, on Halloween Sunday. Militsala, who was a commercial pilot student at an Edmonton flying school, had spent the weekend visiting his parents in Calgary and was returning to Edmonton when the crash occurred.

"We really can't release much information at this time," Yanik said. "But according to eye witnesses, the plane had been in a steep decline just before the crash."

Yanik said investigators have also reported that the Cessna's engine appeared to have been functioning at the time of the crash.

Hot wheels

Hospital Board members Doug Waite, John Kohut, Ray Shantz and Chairman Wayne Layden took a spin last week in the hospital's new adult day support program bus. The bus, which cost $73,000, will be used to help transport patients in the day support program, in the long term care facility and as a bus service for relatives wishing to visit patients in the long term ward. Hospital officials call the bus a boon for their day support program which can now be expanded. For more information on the day support program, see next week's Review.

Brassard makes history

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

Olds/Didsbury MLA Roy Brassard made provincial history this week by becoming the first backbencher MLA to have a private member's bill passed into law.

Bill 204, which allows for the protection of wild horses under the Stray Animals Act, was passed by the Legislative Assembly last week.

This is the first time in the Alberta Legislature's 88 year history that a private member's bill was passed. Under previous house rules, private members's bills could only be introduced for discussion.

"Never before could I have come in here as a private member and seen by bill passed into law," Brassard said in a press release issued last week. "Now good ideas can actually become law without have to be first adopted as government bills."

The new law, prompted by concerns over inhumane trapping of wild horses near Sundre, now carries a stiff $5000 penalty for mistreatment of the horses. The bill also allows for management of herds on public lands.

Deadline change

Due to the Remembrance Day holiday on November 11, the Didsbury Review's deadline for ad and news copy has been moved to Wednesday at 5 pm for businesses who will be closed for the holiday.

Town council notes

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

Representatives of town council will be meeting with the Rocky Bow BMW Riders to work out the details for organizing a motorcycle rally in Didsbury.

The group, made up of BMW motorcycle enthusiasts, has proposed to rent out the Rosebud Valley Campground to hold their 7th annual Lunatic Fringe Rally.

Town councillors feel the rally would be an economic boost to Didsbury, with 100 to 150 people expected.

More census highlights released by the Red Deer Regional Planning Commission shows that Didsbury has a lower than average unemployment rate.

"I guess that is what impressed me the most," said Councillor Dan Peters. "Our unemployment statistics in Didsbury are very much lower than the national average, even lower than the provincial average."

The statistics also showed that Didsbury employed a large number of local residents.

The Town of Didsbury will send a letter of support to the M and E Stakeholders Group in their efforts to stop the elimination of the Machinery and Equipment Tax in Alberta.

Town Administrator Mike Storey said elimination of the M and E tax would only cut approximately $92,000 from the town's budget, but it could mean millions to the county.

Former Fire Chief Gary

Halfyard has been appointed as the Disaster Services Coordinator.

Town council made the appointment at their last council meeting.

Halfyard will be responsible for coordination of the town's disaster services plan and will report directly to Alberta Safety Services.

Shunda Construction has been hired by the town to oversee the upgrading of the roof on the multi-purpose room.

Town council made the decision to hire Shunda without an open tender because of the need to repair the facility's roof quickly.

The repair is estimated to cost $24,000. Funding to pay for the repair is expected to come from a surplus in the town's recreation budget.

Didsbury Mayor Ray Lea said repairs to the roof have been needed for 3 or 4 years.

"I've been up on that roof myself and I can tell you it is pretty well shot," he said.

Shunda, who is overseeing the renovations to the multi-purpose room, is expected to begin repairs right away.

RCMP report

Special to the Review

The Didsbury RCMP Police Detachment is responsible for policing the area in the County of Mountain View south of the Bergen Road as well as some portions of the Municipal District of Bighorn west of and including the Shell Burnt Timber Gas Plant. The detachment staff consists of eight uniformed members of the RCMP as well as two full time office receptionists. The office is located at 2103 - 19th Ave., Didsbury, Alberta. The office is open for routine inquiries Monday through Friday from 08:00 hrs to 1630 hrs. The emergency complaint line phone number is 335-3381 which is answered on a twenty-four hour basis by local staff during the day and by the Red Deer Sub Division telecommunications section after hours.

Since the implementation of the Community Based Policing Program in the fall of 1992 our Didsbury Detachment Community Advisory Committee has become an important part of the operations of the Detachment. Urban Crime Watch in both Didsbury and Carstairs have been organized under the direction of this Community Advisory Committee. Both Urban Crime Watches have been instrumental in reducing the number of Break, Enter and Thefts in both Didsbury and Carstairs.

Community based policing is simply a philosophy or concept which allows and encourages the general public to have input into local policing priorities and provides a medium for communication between the public and the local detachments. The Didsbury Detachment Community Advisory Committee membership is as follows:

Ray Mustard, Bus. 335-3381, Box 1270, Didsbury, AB T0M

0W0.

Doug Sharpe, Res. 335-8251, Bus. 335-3372, Box 1344, Didsbury, AB T0M 0W0.

Cary Hatcher, Res. 335-3095, Bus. 335-3121, Box 270, Didsbury, AB T0M 0W0.

John Grimstead, Res. 638-4433, Bus. 335-3311, R.R. #2, Sundre, AB T0M 1X0.

Bob Wilson, Res. 337-3009, Box 68, Carstairs, AB T0M 0N0.

Grant Bird, Res. 337-2042, R.R. #2, Carstairs, AB T0M 0N0.

Dan Peters, Res. 335-4708, Bus. 335-8556, Box 549, Didsbury, AB T0M 0W0.

Bert Seehawer, Res. 637-3980, Bus. 637-3762, c/o Box 10, Cremona, AB T0M 0R0.

At the present time this advisory committee and the Didsbury Detachment are considering what priorities and goals for policing should be in 1994.

Anyone who has concerns about local policing is encouraged to take these concerns to the advisory committee members.

If you feel that:

- the police should work later
- the police should write more or less tickets
- the police should pick up more drunk drivers
- spend more time on patrol
- devote more time to solving crimes

- open the local office earlier or later

Please contact an advisory committee member. This is your chance to "tell the police what to do and how to do it."

In other words we invite your constructive criticism and comments. They will be carefully considered as goals and priorities are established for 1994.

Tenders out for treatment plant upgrade

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

Tenders have been issued for the upgrade of the Anthony Henday Water Treatment Plant.

Didsbury Town Councillor Ed Vermunt said owners of the treatment plant are looking for estimates for the upgrading of the control system and the pumping system at the plant which supplies water to Crossfield, Carstairs, Didsbury, Olds and Bowden.

The upgrades are estimated to cost close to $1 million, but Vermunt said the majority of the price tag is to be picked up by the provincial government.

"The necessary upgrades were part of the purchase agreement with the province," he said. "They were to upgrade the systems to new (specifications) when the towns took it over."

The towns supplied with water by the treatment plant took over the controls last January. Water prices increased with the take over to help build what Vermunt called a rate-tainer.

"We have to have some money in place in case something goes wrong," he said. "We have about $100,000 put away now. We are building slowly because it is very costly to replace something in that plant. Just a little while ago we spent $35,000 on a breakdown."

Despite the water commissions need for the fund cushion, Vermunt said they are not planning any further water increases in the next few years.

New deal reached for pits

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

Town council has reached a new deal for the digging of pits at the town landfill site.

Columbia Rail Contractors has now been hired by the town to dig pits at the town's dump, located north of the town limits.

The new deal replaces a town deal with the county. Previously, the county had been given free dumping privileges in exchange for a pit digging service. The county had charged the town fifty percent of their cost, but the new deal with Columbia will cost less.

"We had a talk with (County Commissioner) Herman Epp and they said they felt they were only charging us 50 percent of their cost," said Mayor Ray Lea. "They also said they wouldn't be offended if we went with somebody else."

The new agreement with Columbia Rail will cost the town $3900 for three pits. Columbia will also refill the pits once they are filled.

But the new deal with Columbia won't preclude the town from reaching a new dumping agreement with the county. Councillors expressed some concern over "burning their bridges" with the county by simply cutting off the dumping privileges.

"We plan to talk with them about special considerations about dumping privileges," Lea said. "We would like to come up with a new agreement on access. Something that will be fairer to both sides."

In the meantime, Columbia was to begin digging a new pit at the dump last week. The town's last pit would have been filled after last week's municipal garbage collection.

Notes from the Dragon's Den

Education Week is next week - November 15th through to the 19th. This is a chance for the public to get a glimpse of what is happening in schools today. A glimpse is all that is really possible since the daily routines are difficult to capture in a single display. Didsbury High would like to invite the community to watch some of our classes. Towards this end, we will be teaching one class each day from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the Didsbury Nursing Home. Everyone is welcome.

A tentative schedule has been set where Miss Turner will give a drama presentation, Mr. Banfield's students will demonstrate physics experiments, Mr. Thompson will do some chemical reactions, Mrs. Miller will discuss and possibly debate some social issues, and Mr. Klein will give a jazz band performance. Mrs. William's Foods class has also volunteered to provide refreshments on the Thursday of the week. We again offer our invitation to visit the Nursing Home and watch a high school class in action.

OPINIONS / EDITORIAL

Smoke screen

Janice Harrington

What is the purpose of the town's new smoking bylaw and why has it become somewhat ambiguous?

Recent amendments to the anti-smoking bylaw passed by the town council some months ago is leaving the purpose of the bylaw in question and rendering any point to the exercise moot.

Why bother to institute a bylaw which allows smoking employees a room to do it in just to ensure they continue to do their job?

The case in point is the rink area where visitors will soon be unable to light up. Rather than making this policy cohesive, council, on the advice of administration, has allowed one room for employees to smoke. This by itself may seem somewhat reasonable except for the basis behind the decision. Apparently it is to ensure staff who smoke aren't missing, out for a cigarette, when they are needed in the rink.

The logic behind this decision calls into question the reasoning behind the new bylaw as a whole. Is it to discourage smoking in employees and visitors for health reasons, for janitorial reasons or for fire insurance savings? If any of these reasons are behind the decision then allowing some staff to smoke adjacent to areas where smoking is prohibited makes little sense.

And what about the issue of fairness to other town employees? Do all staff have equal access to a room where they can smoke? And should staff have the right to smoke while on the job? Some people may find this habit as distasteful as a staff member eating their lunch while trying to conduct business. Rather than being inconsistent in policy, wouldn't it be better to allow staff breaks for coffee and a cigarette?

With the number of exemptions allowed under this bylaw, it would seem that the only reason the bylaw was introduced was solely for the purpose of having a non-smoking bylaw and not for any health or economic reason. At least with a restrictive laws like seatbelt legislation there is the logic of savings to the health care system behind its implementation. Our society does not need other legislation that exists simply for show.

Quote of the week

"You can trust retired people, Your Worship."

Town Councillor and retired minister Willard Swalm discussing the merits of inviting the BMW motorcycle rally to Didsbury with Mayor Ray Lea at the last town council meeting.

The public opinion

by Bob Boucher

This is a message to Mr. Bouchard, MP, leader of the Bloc Quebecois.

On various occasions you have mentioned that our two nations should be able to co-operate and find a solution to the varying views we now reflect about the need to maintain the culture of Quebec.

The first thing I would like to know is, "What is meant by our two nations? Are we suddenly divided into two separate countries without the consensus of the people of the province of Quebec?"

Secondly, Canada remaining Canada and as you mention, the province of Quebec being a separate nation, "What are you doing sitting in our Canadian Parliament?"

I am sure that if the citizens in the Province of Quebec were told the true story by their leaders, they (the people) would recognize the true affection that the many ethnic groups, of which Canada is formed, has for them. The joining of the citizens of Quebec in building a strong and united Canada does not mean that they will lose their customs, traditions or culture. The other nine provinces are not trying to take away Quebec's sovereignty. The constitution states that each person or ethnic group has the right to maintain their own individuality, customs and language.

Ever since confederation, the leaders of the province of Quebec have been seeking concessions that none of the other provinces have had the pleasure of obtaining. A major concession being that every province in Canada would be bilingual, that is, every province except Quebec.

The time has come for the leaders of the Province of Quebec to take a realistic look at their demands and aid in building a strong united Canada, not a separated Canada. We all have the sovereign duty to preserve the rights of all citizens in this, our great Dominion of Canada.

As all businessmen know, you cannot take out more than you put into an undertaking and still survive.

My question to you Mr. Bouchard is, "Are you for a united Canada or for a separated Canada?"

If you are for a united Canada, then let every party work together in building a strong and secure Canada with equality for all.

If you are for a separated Canada, mull over the consequences, then please do what you think you must and allow the balance of the provinces to concentrate on the advancement of a Canada that we are all proud to live in.

Words to remember

Dear Editor:

As Remembrance Day again approaches, and as we long to see the end of hostilities in the former Yugoslavia, Somalia, and other trouble spots in the world, you may be looking around for suitable items to publish. Kindly consider the poem below. In my opinion, it's so well put that I would, in fact, like to see it published on an annual basis.

The poem was written by Nicholas Peters just after the outbreak of World War II in 1939. Peters, who lived for some years at Grande Pointe, Manitoba, had emigrated from Russia in 1925 as a boy of 10 and had seen firsthand the horrors of revolution and war in his native country. He joined the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1942 and trained as a flying officer. He died on the night of March 7, 1945 after his aircraft was hit by enemy fire. On Nov. 10, word was received that Peters, together with two of his crew members, lay buried at Eltsdorf, near Hamburg, Germany. The poem is from a collection of Peters' work entitled Another Morn.

I have been given permission, by the Peters' family, to have the poem published.

The Wars We Make

I gaze into the world with sorrowing eyes

And see the wide-abounding fruits of hate.

We fight, we say, for peace, and find

The wars we make

To be a spring of hate and source of future war.

Is there no peace for man?

No hope that this accursed flow Of blood may cease?

Is this our destiny: to kill and maim

For peace?

Or is this 'peace' we strive to gain

A thin, unholy masquerade

Which, when our pride, our greed, our gain is touched too far,

Is shed, and stands uncovered, what we are?

Show me your light, O God

That I may fight for peace with peace

And not with war;
To prove my love with love,
And hate no more!

Nicholas Peters

Inscribed on Peters' gravestone in Germany are the following words:

Show Us Your Light, O God,
That We May Fight
For Peace With Peace
And Not With War.

Yours truly,
Stan Penner

Concerns on privatization

Dear Editor:

More and more, it appears the Alberta Government has already decided to privatize Access Network, the province's educational radio and television broadcaster.

Although we at Access have been told nothing officially - only that we are being reviewed and no decision will be made until March 1994 - recent statements by our minister, Steve West, indicate otherwise.

West told Standard Broadcast News last month that it might be cheaper to simply buy educational programming time on existing private broadcast channels, rather than continue funding Access.

I enclose some facts prepared by Access in our own defence. We believe the information speaks volumes about our successes, our cost-efficiency and cost-effectiveness.

But if this ledger of our life and deeds falls on deaf ears, will anyone out there really care when the plug's finally pulled? So, in the time remaining, we hope some of our allies will step forward to speak for us.

The facts are, we annually broadcast more than 6,000 hours of educational television and more than 6,750 hours of radio - each heavy on Canadian and Alberta content - all at a per capita cost of just 54 cents a month.

And almost all of the $16 million grant we receive from the Alberta government goes right back into the private sector for supplies and services.

More than 450,000 Albertans watch and listen to us. Chief among them, one in three pre-schoolers, one in five parents, 22.7 percent of Albertans over age 50 and 25.2 percent of Albertans over 60. And in just the past three years, our radio and television membership has soared 23 percent.

Why? Because we provide an intelligent family-viewing alternative to existing channels; one that is commercial-free, and presents non-violent, educational, chiefly Canadian-made programming for Alberta's children.

In the end, the privatization of Access will be a decision in which we who work here have no say. Unfortunately, neither will our viewers.

The decision will be made (perhaps has already been made) behind closed doors, without any consultation with employees or the people we serve; the people whose tax money permits us to work on their behalf at careers we find deeply rewarding and satisfying; careers based on producing, broadcasting and distributing quality educational programming and material to Alberta's children, students, teachers, parents and grandparents.

Access Network exists for one reason: to fulfil our mandate of providing Albertans of all ages with an opportunity for life-long learning.

Thus, any discussion of our fate begs two important questions:

- Are we doing a good job?
- Is the service we provide worth 54 cents a month?

So...is anyone out there willing to start asking?

Best regards,
Dar Tost,
Media Relations
Access Network

An issue in response

Dear Editor:

I am writing in response to Mr. Jim Gorrill's letter, published on October 12, 1993, regarding the construction of the new Immaculata Hospital in Westlock. I would like to take this opportunity to respond directly to his concerns. At the onset let me make it very clear that contrary to media coverage on this subject, this is not a new initiative. Clearly, this is a project that has been in the works for several years, and is required to continue meeting the health care needs of the over 16,000 residents of Westlock and area that it will serve.

The existing Westlock Immaculata Hospital was built in three stages -- 1927, 1948 and 1968. The hospital now requires extensive upgrading and renovations to the point where it would be more cost effective to build a new facility. The need for a replacement hospital was first approved for planning in 1985 and the project has proceeded slowly and only when funds could be committed based on need. As a result, it was deferred in March 1990 then reactivated in April 1992 when Alberta Health and Alberta Public Works, Supply and Services granted the hospital board approval to recommence design with funding identified in that year's budget. Funding for construction will come from available capital project funds, which was identified in the 1992/93 fiscal year.

The Government of Alberta is committed to reducing government spending, but not at the expense of the welfare of Albertans. When a decision is made to proceed with a capital project we ensure that the project is imperative to the well-being of Albertans. The original Immaculata Hospital in Westlock is simply worn out and is not equipped with many of the modern amenities needed to provide a high standard of health care. In fact, during the election campaign, the Liberal Party was supportive of the new hospital and felt that it was long overdue and much needed in Westlock, and that this hospital should have been built in 1984 or 1985.

The building of the Westlock Immaculata Hospital is the most cost-effective solution for the community as well as the province to ensure that the people of this area have continued access to the quality health care they are entitled to. Please be assured that all government decisions are based on what is deemed best for Alberta and its residents, not just a selected few.

It is my hope that this information has addressed Mr. Gorrill's, and anyone else's, concerns.

Yours sincerely,
Ken Kowalski
Deputy Premier Minister

ATA inconsistent on facts

Dear Editor:

I am responding to the recent ad placed in your paper by the Alberta Teachers Association which began "Who Deserves Less?"

This ad is misleading. Private schools get 75 percent of the basic education grant that public schools receive. Private schools do not have access to transportation grants or to capital grants. Private schools do receive a small amount for "special needs" students. Overall, private schools receive only 35 percent of funding from government sources compared to the amount received by public schools.

The increased funding the ad speaks of is small and is a one-time per student grant for this year only. This is an attempt to offset a funding inequity that private schools have experienced. Private schools have worked for years with less, in fact with a lot less. Their efficiency in providing a good education with a little is commendable and exemplary.

So I ask, who is responsible for the two-tiered educational system that exists in Alberta? It is not private schools as your ad suggests. The ATA is attacking a system that has existed for years, not one which has been just recently created by expected government cutbacks or a small one time grant to private schools.

I would like to thank the ATA for the opportunity to point out this inequity in funding to the general public. I concur with the last statement in your ad, "All children deserve the best." The goal of excellence in education is one we both share.

Sincerely,
Dennis Punter,
Superintendent,
Koinonia Christian Schools

Legislature remains status quo

Dear Editor:

Just four months ago, Ralph Klein campaigned on a promise for a more open, accountable style of government. The people of Olds-Didsbury will be disappointed to know that Mr. Klein and Tory MLAs have already proven how empty that promise was.

Taxpayers lost well over $600 million on NovAtel, and that figure could climb toward $1 billion! That money didn't simply disappear. It went into people's pockets, and we still don't know whose pockets were lined. The Klein government has clamped the lid on NovAtel; it has not allowed a full investigation to uncover the real story behind the fiasco.

On September 29, Conservative government MLAs voted against six Alberta Liberal motions calling on the government to release details on NovAtel and a wide range of other loan guarantees. Tory MLA Roy Brassard, who represents your readers, stood with them and voted to keep the lid on the government's secrets.

The Premier and his colleagues promised openness. They say they are being more open. Yet they continue to be as secretive as ever. Sadly, so far they have proven to be nothing more than common hypocrites.

The Klein government is the same as Don Getty's government was -- tight as a drum when it comes to allowing the public to see what it is doing.

What people don't know won't hurt them. They know this all too well.

Sincerely yours,
Laurence Decore, Leader
Alberta Liberal Opposition

Not just another craft fair

by Maureen Lynn
Review writer

Glue guns ready...aim...fire!

It sounds easy enough to make your own Christmas crafts. Why then, each year, do we find ourselves wandering through craft fair after craft fair with good intentions of rushing home to make the latest designs of festive memorabilia only to end up selecting the best store-bought facsimile?

Even the purest of intentions can suffer setbacks. Thankfully, we can take refuge in the fact that events like the May City Craft Fair held at the Reed Ranch School this past Saturday supplies visitors with instruction as well as inspiration.

One of the events organizers, Bonnie Robb, says this year's courses in plastic jewellery and mini Christmas trees added a unique touch to the wide selection of handcrafted items presented by talented craftsmen throughout the area. "Each session lasts about an hour and offers some pretty interesting techniques for you to learn as you go along," said Robb. "The mini Christmas tree session, for example, demonstrated how to put each piece of the project together using things like coat hangers, garland and mini lights."

This is the second time the Reed Ranch School has seen a craft fair of this nature. The first time, Robb said, was just last year.

"It's sponsored by the Missionary Women's Club, of which I am a member. We have really been trying to instill as much community use in the school as we can. With cutbacks the way they are it just makes sense to get as much out of this facility as we can."

Robb said the Missionary congregation in May City is affiliated with the Evangelical Missionary Church in Didsbury.

The next event being held is the Annual Church Christmas Banquet on December 10th. Admission is free to anyone who reserves a ticket in advance and the food is second to none. Who says there's not such things as a free lunch?

If you are interested in attending the supper, or are interested in finding out more about how to book a community event at Reed Ranch School, please contact School Secretary Bonnie Robb at 556-2429.

Midway celebrates 40th year

Special to the Review

Midway Community School is celebrating its fortieth year of operation this summer.

As a community school, Midway enhances the basic curriculum by relating it to real life situations in the community. Students go into the community to use available facilities and resources and provide service while they learn. In turn, community resources are brought into the school. Study of the local community becomes the basis of study of life in other communities in the world.

A recycling centre has been installed in our school with assistance from Shell Canada. A follow-up trip to trace the materials to the finished product has been planned as is volunteer paper sorting at the Lions recycling plant in Carstairs.

There is effective involvement of parents and other community members in helping teachers and developing the curriculum of the school through appropriate voluntary service. Parents operate a Halloween Arcade, hot lunch program and a community pie social. Parents lay out and assemble a community newsletter containing local events, history, and school news. A free author visit was won for the school by Midway parents involved with the students in a special reading program -- one of seven schools across Alberta.

Educational activities involving people of all ages are encouraged. Parent - coordinated adult evening courses and a skating program in the adjacent curling rink run during the winter months.

Midway cooperates with other agencies in the community. Admission to concerts is often waived in favor of donations to food banks. The school serves as a venue for art exhibitions, both local and further afield.

The school facility is available for community educational, recreational, cultural and social use over and above regular classes. During the last school year, the community used the school facilities a considerable amount of time.

Midway Community School is a vibrant hub of activity -- a community on the move!!

Cremona to explore crime watch issue

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

Cremona may become the next local community to join in the urban crime watch program.

Didsbury RCMP and organizers of the Didsbury urban crime watch program are holding a meeting in Cremona tomorrow to gauge public interest in initiating the program.

Urban crime watch program have been operating in both Didsbury and Carstairs for several months. The program, in which local volunteers help extend police patrols, has been credited with reducing the number of break and enter offences since its implementation.

The meeting will be held on November 10, 1993 at the Cremona Community Hall starting at 7:30 pm.

The basics of yesterday won't cut it in tomorrow's world

There's a lot of talk lately about getting back to the basics of education. Some see a return to the good old days as a way to save money. After all, we got by on a basic education. Unfortunately, our children won't.

The world is now fast-paced, highly technological and information-packed. Give our children the tools they'll need to thrive in it.

Artisans still waiting to go home

by Maureen Lynn
Review writer

Well, they would... if they could. It's been a game of wait and see for members of the recently rekindled Artisans Group in Didsbury.

The group of painters, weavers, sculptors, woodworkers and potters have been holding a series of meetings to discuss the potential that lie ahead if they are able to move into the old brick and sandstone school with the Didsbury Historical Society.

Local artist Ruth Jepson, who serves on the Artisan's Board of Directors, is optimistic progress on the concept is evolving slowly, but surely. "We will be holding a directive meeting on the 15th of this month to form an official society before we can further our proposal to join with the museum," she said. "We need to address a number of issues, including access to funding and those sorts of details."

Jepson anticipates that any money raised by either the Artisans Group or the Didsbury Historical Society could, for example, be used to improve the facility, or a similar project of mutual gain.

While the progress may be fresh, the search for a "home" for the Artisans Group has been taking place for quite some time. Jepson said the facility could be used to provide workshops to promising apprentices and offer classes to people that are interested in cultivating their talents.

Members of the Didsbury Historical Society are expected to gather again to consider the Artisan's latest proposal on November 17th. Until then, local artists will simply have to wait awhile longer.

"We just want to keep this issue in the public's eye," Jepson said.

"The more publicity and exposure we can create the better chance we have of going somewhere with this."

Variety spices up the valley

by Maureen Lynn
Review writer

Vaudeville made a comeback in Water Valley this weekend.

For one day, local talent from around the province danced, sang, and recited poetry in the spotlight on the familiar stage of the Water Valley Community Centre in front of an attentive audience of area residents and fellow performers.

The gig was none other than the Water Valley Variety Show - an event co-organizer Joy Pillipow believes adds a healthy balance to the usual activities taking place around their bustling community.

"We usually hold a lot of auctions out here this time of year so members of both the Chinook Creative Arts Foundation and the Water Valley Community Association decided to agree to host something different to add a little...variety," Pillipow explained.

The original idea to bring the Variety Show to Water Valley actually came from one of the communities former residents, Pillipow's aunt, Andrea Hawluck. "She lives in Red Deer now, and has put together similar events there as well as in communities like Olds and Didsbury. She felt Water Valley would also make a good location for the show. She knows this community quite well...was raised here, so everything just seemed to click."

Among the numerous artists showcased in the two hour event were: Cowboy Poet Lloyd Dolan, the Cremona School Band, Bertha Betts, singer Cameron Reid, the Tom Lashmore Band and even some jazz dancers.

Anyone coming to the event was treated to a chili dinner and dance following the performances.

Proceeds from the event were donated to the Shock Trauma Air

Rescue Society (S.T.A.R.S.).

Will there be a 2nd Annual Variety Show next year?

"I think it could be a possibility, but perhaps at a different time of year when there aren't quite as many different events happening all at once," said Pillipow shortly before the event unfolded. "We just want to see how this one goes before we start into next year just yet."

Ross Ford report

by Keely Webster,
Warren Steckly, Ryan Hodgson

Mrs. Able - is studying senses. Mrs. Brown - are studying pioneers. Mrs. Eckstrand - They hope to make corn husk dolls and homemade Christmas ornaments and were making bread and butter. It will be fun!

Mrs. Hrabok/Mrs. Kocer - Mr. Allan went kayaking with us. Mr. Christensen came for a visit. Mr. Dickinson - They are looking forward to their first report card and are starting to dream about Christmas. In science they are making instruments.

Mrs. Arthurs/Mrs. Jensen - They are waiting for letters from Quebec City. Mrs. Murphy - the Unicef money has been counted and we want to thank Mrs. Mudry and Mrs. Krupich for their help counting and rolling the coins. About 200 boxes were returned. We are pleased to be able to send Unicef $831.73. Our school pictures have been delivered. We are waiting to set a date for retakes. Mrs. Turner - They are studying their five senses.

Mr. Spence - Our school is going to be having a school-wide theme on agriculture. This month we are going to study goats and pigs. We are going to have guest speakers come to our school to tell us about these animals.

Mrs. Iverson - We are talking and reading about preparing for winter.

Mrs. Brown, 4D - We have completed our spider unit and the reports we wrote are on display at the Didsbury Public Library. Drop in and find out about these interesting creatures.

Mrs. Hahn, ECS - We are going to paint t-shirts this month.

Mrs. Enes, 2C - We went to a haunted house at Westglen School. Mrs. Rother's class put on the haunted house.

Mrs. Hohenwater - We are learning how to add numbers in math. We are working on a theme called "Special Me", in language arts.

Mrs. Nuss - The Halloween party was great. We made our own pizza and bobbed for apples. We are learning to read. It was yucky cutting a pumpkin.

Mrs. Henderson - The library has purchased new books with the book fair money.

Mrs. Charrons class is going to read fairy tales and try to write their own.

Mr. Tyler - we are writing comic strips in our creative writing class.

* Parents are invited to Ross Ford School for a special event on Wednesday, Nov. 17 at 11:30 to read or help with a story writing project with their child. Come and participate during Education Week activities!

Southwest Didsbury news

by Bessie Eckstrand
Special to the Review

Sympathy of the area is extended to Dorothy Hosegood and daughters and family as husband and father Harvey passed away Oct. 24th in the Mountain View Health Care Centre at the age of 89 years. Funeral services were held at Knox United Church with Rev. John Orman of the Anglican Church officiating. Burial was in the Didsbury cemetery.

Harvey leaves to mourn his passing his wife Dorothy and 3 daughters: Linda Anderson of Calgary, Mary Lou (Al) Bishoff of Surrey, B.C., Lillian (Ken) Sinclair of Kelowna, B.C. and grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren. He also leaves his sister Audrey Troyanek of Lethbridge and his 2 brothers, Percy (wife Bessie) of Didsbury and Doug (wife Millie) of Calgary.

Harvey farmed west of Didsbury all of his life, served his community on the county council and hospital board. He was always interested in curling and politics. He lived a good full life and will be sadly missed by his wife Dorothy, family, relatives and especially by his collie dog.

Sympathy of the area is also expressed to husband Earl Philips and son and daughter as wife and mother Margaret passed away Oct. 22nd at the age of 80 years.

Funeral services and lunch was held at the Elks Hall with burial in the Didsbury cemetery.

She leaves to mourn her passing her husband Earl, her daughter Linda (Peter) Wollman of Pincher Creek, her son Don (Mary Anne) of Crossfield, 8 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren.

Margaret was born in Blackie, Alta., took a business course and classes in home industries and became a professional seamstress. She married Earl in 1936. They lived on a farm west of Didsbury for many years. She was active in the Melvin Institute and Royal Purple Lodge. She will be sadly missed by her husband Earl and family.

Area welcomes Shelley and John Paul (McEwan-Trottier) who have moved a trailer onto mother Doreen McEwan's land - just off the Westcott Road. Shelley is a hairdresser and John Paul works for an oil company. They love the country living and hope they will soon get acquainted with everyone in the area.

Best wishes and congratulations go to Carol Krammer (who has lived on the Dorothy and Ezra farmstead for the past year) who is now the new owner of Thee Coffee Shoppe & Deli in Didsbury. The shop will be open Monday to Friday, so we'll see you for coffee.

Christmas tea planned

by A. Pringle
Special to the Review

St. Cyprian's Anglican Ladies Auxiliary (Didsbury) met in the church hall Oct. 25 to plan the forthcoming Tea and Sale on November 27 at 2 - 4 p.m.

An added attraction will be that "The Nutman" will be in attendance. He has many novel Christmas ideas for sale. Now is the time to obtain your Christmas gifts early

- trays of nuts and candies etc.

Pearl Craig spoke on F.C.S.S. (Family and Community Social Services) and the work that is done in the community by this group of volunteers. Thanks Pearl for a most enlightening talk.

Our next meeting will be Nov. 29 at 7 p.m. in the church hall and will be our Christmas party. Come to the tea and/or the meeting and enjoy a time of fellowship.

4-Her attends leaders' forum

"Quest For Quality" was the theme of the Western Provinces Leaders Forum. The conference was held at Southport Aerospace Centre, Manitoba, on October 20-24, 1993. Attending the conference were 50 enthusiastic 4-H leaders and staff from Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia. Laurie Lewis of the Cremona 4-H club attended this conference.

"It was a wonderful opportunity to get together with other 4-H leaders and exchange ideas" she said.

Speakers covered a variety of topics such as challenges and opportunities on the farm, balancing your time, being the best that you can be, creative meetings and more.

An interesting discussion focused on the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator. This highlighted the difference in people and how to work together.

An afternoon of tours included the National Agri-Food Technology Centre, K and G Mushroom Farm, Connerly Riverdale Farms, Sisson Century Farm, Vanderveen's Greenhouses, and the 4-H Museum in Roland, Manitoba - the home of 4-H in Canada.

A fun evening was spent in "King Arthur's Court" while another included sharing of provincial programs and information. The final banquet featured the guest speaker, Professor Tim Ball, and a heritage

4-H scholarships awarded

Eighty-four past and present Alberta 4-H members have been awarded scholarships for the 1993-94 academic year.

"Post-secondary students from throughout the province benefited from over $51,000 offered in scholarship monies this year," says Jane Wheeler, scholarship co-ordinator.

Over 280 applications were received for the more than 40 scholarships. Each application was considered based on 4-H and community involvement, leadership skills, school activities, academic standing and other criteria set by scholarship donors.

In 1993 six new scholarships were added to the provincial program. They are: the Calgary 4-H Alumni Scholarship of $300, the Dana Misick Memorial Scholarship of $500, the Harvest Trust Scholarship for approximately $650, the Ralph Cossey Memorial Scholarship of $350, the Co-operators Scholarship of $1,000 and, the Walter Lipkewich Memorial Scholarship of $350.

With the six additional scholarships, the total number available is now 46.

Scholarships are funded by individuals, corporations, associations, the Alberta government and memorial funds. The wide variety of scholarships are available to both former and current Alberta 4-H club members.

For more information about the Alberta 4-H scholarship program or starting a 4-H scholarship, contact Alberta Agriculture's home economics and 4-H branch at Room 200, 7000-113 Street, Edmonton, Alberta T6H 5T6, or call 422-4444.

Local 4-H scholarship winners are: Agrifoods International Cooperative Ltd., $500, Angela Johnson, Didsbury; Alberta Dairy Association & Alberta Agriculture, $1,000, Ella Wright, Didsbury; Alberta Ford & Mercury Dealer, $1,000, Jean Rosenke, Olds.

Around the world in a day

by Maureen Lynn
Review writer

Pack your suitcase. Intra Don's World Travel is ready to take you on a trip you'll never forget.

The starting point is none other than Didsbury's own recreation centre. Your tour departs at 1 p.m. on Saturday, November 13. Complimentary coffee and snacks will be served on board as your "guides" from Didsbury's own personal travel service will escort you to such far off escapes as Alaska, the Orient, and parts of eastern Canada and the United States.

It's all part of the 11th Annual Round the World Travel Show - an event organizer Linda Vernon promises to be not only resourceful, but also a lot of fun.

"It's a chance for people to come and get an armchair tour of the world," said Vernon of the Intra Travel sponsored event.

Representatives from several travel companies such as Cardinal Coach Tours, Can Am Holidays, Premier Holidays and Canadian Airlines will be on hand with destinations from around the world.

"Cardinal Coach Tours has a wonderful tour that travels north into Alaska and we'll be showing some videos on those excursions along with some additional footage we have on Alaskan cruises," Vernon said. "It's going to be very difficult not to want to travel to these places after you see them on screen...the scenery is just so breathtaking."

But if Alaska's not for you, why not seek out the exotic terrain of Indonesia, Singapore and Bangkok?

"Premiere Tours will be showing many different videos of the Orient. It's a new tour that Intra Don's World Travel will be offering in the beginning of February," Vernon said.

For those that prefer to venture closer to home, Can Am Holidays will be on hand to showcase their coach tours in eastern Canada and parts of the United States.

"These are always very popular with our seniors...but really it's something that everyone can enjoy seeing and doing for the holidays."

While you're at the show, be sure to enter for one of the many door prizes and the grand prize of a trip for two from Canadian Airlines. "Where?...well, we're not going to let that one out of the bag until Saturday. Sometimes, it's more fun not to know everything," Vernon said.

Furnace maintenance pays in long run

by Maureen Lynn
Review writer

Does that cold chill in the air have you nudging the dial on the thermostat of your home higher and higher?

Modern technology has conditioned us to the instant gratification of our furnaces. But what if one day that large square box in the corner of your basement stopped working?

Stan Holst of Stan's Furnace Cleaning and Repairs in Sundre says the misuse and neglect of our household furnaces is one of the strongest factors keeping him in business these days.

"People just don't look after them," said Holst, a veteran of the furnace repair service for well over 20 years. "Some of it is neglect...but some of it is just plain ignorance. So many people just don't even know where the filter is, never mind how to clean it."

Fall is one of the busiest times for Holst. Residents throughout the area have the home-based operation running at capacity.

"This is the exact opposite of the set up most people have in their homes. It's not the best, but because of the way trailers are designed, it's the only way the system can work."

All totalled, it costs about $155 to service and clean the average home furnace and about $135 for mobile homes. But it can cost a lot less if you follow Stan's basic recipe for hassle-free upkeep regime. Just make sure, he says, to clean the filter regularly and check the belt.

If you still have trouble, just call Stan's Furnace Cleaning and Repairs anytime from Monday to Friday at 638-2685. The mobile is 556-0511. Just watch for the high power vac truck and let the professionals put the warmth back where it belongs.

"I'm backed up two weeks already," he said. "People just plain forget until the last minute before finding someone to clean or service their furnace for them. Really, for health reasons alone, they should have their furnace fully cleaned at least once every two to three years."

In the case of mobile home residents, the necessity for such guidelines to be followed are that much more crucial because the flame that keeps the furnace lit is below a specialized fan. Consequently, as the fan draws in more air into the furnace, more and more lint is collected and exposed to the flame posing a potential hazard.

PERSONALITIES

McCullochs celebrate 60 years together

by Heidi Collins
Special to the Review

Lou and Vi McCulloch were married on November 1, 1933 at the Viney homestead in the Stuart district. Lou McCulloch was born on August 21, 1906 on the McCulloch homestead, 20 miles east of Didsbury. He was the second child of 11 born to Will and Jessie McCulloch. Violet Viney - McCulloch was born on January 21, 1908 on the family homestead in the Stuart district. Violet was the third child of nine born to Henry and Margaret Viney.

After Lou and Vi were married, they lived in various towns, wherever the oil field took them. Lou worked for several years in the oil field before buying Regent Drilling. With the sale of the company and a few more adventures, Lou and Violet retired in 1971. They summered in Edmonton and wintered in Phoenix. In 1990, the decision was made to stay all year round in Edmonton. Now in the mid-80s they are still active with their friends.

Their marriage was blessed with one son, Ken (Roberta) and one daughter, Evelyn. Lou and Violet have five grandchildren; Valarie McCulloch, Sharon (Todd) Peterson, Greg McCulloch, Heidi Collins and Susie Westerdorp. They also have the pleasure of three great grandchildren; Rebecca Collins, Daniel Collins and Nathain Collins.

Then and now....

The McCullochs celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with family and friends in Didsbury last month. The pair lived most of their life in the area but have since moved to Edmonton.

The Way of Life

by Pastor Bruce Wiebe
Bergthal Mennonite Church

The Winds of Change

Something unknown is blowing in. Some try to guess what is in store. Others feel that the present reality requires all their energy and attention. The winds of change have a biting edge. In defence we zip up, pull on, and wrap tightly. Few are the brave (or are they the foolish?)

who defiantly stand in the wind.

What will Canada look like under the leadership of a majority Liberal government? Will the progressive steps of Albertans be slowed by the cutbacks of the Klein regime? Will the face of our county and town be altered by closures, cutbacks, and lay-offs? Will our families and friends bear the weight of the many political, social and economic pressures? Do you and I have a future? Something unknown is blowing in.

In a letter to the Hebrews, the Apostle Paul reminds all of us that the future is a mixture of the unknown and the known. The unknown will always cause stress and anxiety. The known is Jesus Christ, "the same yesterday and today and forever" (Hebrews 13:8). The love and grace of God towards us is a constant. Salvation by faith in Christ is God's ever-present gift to us. The will of God in Christ always invites us to love people, to build strong relationships, and to seek justice on behalf of the needy.

Are there people among us who will get lost as the winds of change blow? Will we be preoccupied with putting up our defences? This very day we are invited to accept Jesus Christ as our sure anchor in the storms of life. With our own future secure we are both privileged to stand with the needy, even if it means defiantly facing the wind.

Missions emphasized at local church

The month of November has been designated as Missions Month at the Didsbury Evangelical Missionary Church.

Peter Dennison will be one of the special missionary guests during the month. He met his wife Becky at Emmanuel Bible College in Kitchener, Ontario and they were married on May 28, 1977. They have three sons -- Eric, Drew and Scott.

Dennison served as pastor of Bethel Missionary Church, Lion's Head, Ontario from 1978 - 1981. The Dennisons went to Nigeria on September 18, 1982 where they served at the Intermediate English Bible School in Tungan Magajiya.

In 1989 they moved to Ilorin, Nigeria, where Dennison began serving as Theological Education Director for the Nigerian Church. His duties involved supervising the three English language Bible schools and the three vernacular language Bible schools operated by the church. He was also the organizer of the annual pastor's seminars in each district. He also served as treasurer of the mission.

In 1991 he became chairman of the field, becoming responsible for all aspects of the mission's work. Becky has been very involved in teaching women's classes and providing lodging and meals for missionaries and guests travelling to

OBITUARIES

HOSEGOOD

James Harvey Hosegood of Didsbury passed away at the Mountain View Health Care Centre on Sunday, October 24, 1993 at the age of 89 years.

He was born Sept. 15, 1904, the eldest son of James and Blanche Hosegood, at the Hosegood homestead, 14 miles west of Didsbury. He attended Rugby School, Didsbury High School, and Olds Agricultural College. He helped on the family farm until his marriage to Dorothy Sissons of Lacombe, on July 18, 1933.

They began farming across the road from the family farm, and Harvey actively farmed until he entered the hospital on Oct. 22nd. Harvey helped build Rugby Hall in 1938. Beginning in the late 1940's, he helped bring electricity to the district through Rural Electric, a Calgary Power program. He spent a number of years helping Didsbury West Mutual Telephone Co. One of the original members of the Didsbury Hospital Board, he was the longest serving member, ending 34 years of service in October, 1986. He served as a municipal councillor for the County of Mountain View from 1961 to 1977 and the Red Deer Planning Commission for 10 years. Harvey was a life member of King Hiram Lodge, No. 21, AF & AM, having joined in 1929 and a member of St. Hilda Chapter No. 27, Order of the Eastern Star. And he was well known as an avid curler.

Cancer took its toll and he finally came in from the field for a well-deserved rest. He will be greatly missed by his loving wife of 60 years, Dorothy, and his daughters, Linda Anderson of Calgary, Mary Lou (Al) Bishoff of Surrey, B.C. and Lillian (Ken) Sinclair of Kelowna, B.C.; his seven grandchildren, Kevin Anderson of Calgary and Karen (Dave) Cuthbertson of Cranbrook, B.C., Jacquie (Bill) Stoop of Surrey, B.C., Randy (Karen) Folkman of Calgary, Tim (Sheila) Folkman of North Vancouver, B.C., Murray Sinclair of Regina, Sask. and Lesley Sinclair of Kelowna, B.C.; and his five great grandchildren, Robb and William Cuthbertson, Justin Stoop, and Lindsay and Stephanie Folkman.

Also surviving him are his brothers Percy (Bessie) Hosegood of Didsbury and Douglas (Millie) Hosegood of Calgary, his sister Audrey Troyanek of Lethbridge and numerous nephews and nieces. He was predeceased by his father James in 1946, his mother Blanche in 1959, his sister Connie Wight in 1973, his son-in-law Jim Anderson in 1990, and his nephew, Brian Hosegood, in 1993.

The funeral service was held on Oct. 28, 1993, from Knox United Church in Didsbury with the Reverend John Orman of St. Cyprian's Anglican Church officiating and son-in-law Ken Sinclair giving the eulogy. Active pallbearers were the seven grandchildren and nephew Jeffrey Hosegood and niece Bobbi-Gayle Hosegood. Honorary pallbearers were Emerson McInnis, Murray McRae, Ed McNeil, Clifford Scott, Bruce Smith and Al Bishoff. Interment service at the Didsbury cemetery was given by Reverend John Orman, followed by King Hiram Lodge #27 brethren giving the Masonic Graveside Service.

If friends desire, memorial donations may be given to Mountain View Health Care Centre (MVHCC) Palliative Care Unit in Didsbury.

THIEME

Stephen Robert Bryon Thieme was taken from us by a tragic and untimely death at age 2½ years. He passed away on Tuesday, October 26, 1993 in Stettler, Alberta.

Stephen was born in Stettler, Alberta to Karen Collins on March 28, 1991. Stephen was an energetic little boy who loved life.

He suffered his only setback in life when he lost the sight in his left eye.

Stephen was predeceased by his grandmother, Sheila Collins on July 31, 1993. He is survived by his mother, Karen Collins, his brother, Dustin, his sister, Dawn, his grandfather, Bob Collins, his uncle and aunt, David and Heidi Collins and 3 cousins, Rebecca, Daniel and Nathaniel.

Funeral services were held in Stettler.

Instead of flowers, it is requested that donations be made to the Calgary chapter of the C.N.I.B.

RICHARDSON

Mrs. Harriet (Ellen) Richardson passed away at the Valley Park Manor in Red Deer on October 29 at the age of 81 years.

Ellen was born on April 12, 1912 in Sterlingville, Alberta. She lived in the Bancroft District and she was united in marriage to Harry Richardson in 1931 and they lived on the Richardson farm until 1973 when they moved to Didsbury. Harry died in 1979 and in March 1985 she married Fred Richardson and they had a happy 2 years.

Ellen had many interests in life:

Bancroft Women's Institute, Eastern Star, Women's Legion Auxiliary, 5-0 Club and she was a member of the Anglican Church. She was a volunteer for many years - Didsbury Hospital Auxiliary and Meals on Wheels. Ellen enjoyed helping others and was a constant visitor to friends and relatives in the nursing home in Didsbury. Her grandchildren and great grandchildren were a great joy to her. Ellen's last accomplishment was the Richardson Family History Book for which she spent many hours organizing people and sorting pictures. This book was completed in 1992 and the first book was presented to Ellen on her 80th birthday.

Following her 80th birthday, she had a number of strokes which left her unable to manage in her own home and was relocated to Valley Park Manor in Red Deer. She enjoyed the activities and social gatherings for the 9 months she was there. She also enjoyed her many visitors and got great joy out of

Agricultural Mechanics Instructor (Term Certain)

Olds College is a dynamic, client-centered institution that has served the needs of Western Canada for 80 years. Our goal is to become the Centre of Excellence for practical career and business oriented education associated with agriculture, horticulture, the environment, the land and rural economy.

The Trades and Technologies Department requires a Term Certain Agricultural Mechanics Instructor for the period of January 1, 1994 until April 30, 1994.

The successful candidate will instruct students in the Mechanical Technology Program. It is essential that the applicant have current skills in the testing, servicing and troubleshooting of complex hydraulic systems, hydrostatic drives, electrohydraulic systems, and electrical systems commonly found on newer agricultural equipment.

Journeyman certification in Agricultural and/or Heavy Duty Mechanics and related work experience is required. Related teaching experience at the post-secondary level would be a definite asset. Strong interpersonal skills are required for the "team" environment.

If a suitable candidate is not found, Olds College would consider alternative part time arrangements for selected portions of the above noted subject areas.

Interested applicants are invited to submit a resume by November 22, 1993 to:

Human Resources
Olds College
 4500 - 50 Street
 OLDS, AB. T4H 1R6

 brought a meaningful close to the evening.

The conference concluded on Sunday with thank yous and good byes. All delegates were keen to share their ideas with their local clubs.

Major financial sponsors for the "Quest for Quality" Conference were Agriculture and Agri Food Canada, Manitoba Agriculture and the 4-H Councils from Central Region, Manitoba, British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan.

The next Western Provinces
 Leaders Forum will be held in Sas-

630 - CARDS OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbours for food, flowers, cards and words of comfort during the loss of our Mother, Grandmother and Great-Grandmother. Also to Pastor Forbes for his comforting service. Special thanks to Dr. Read and the nursing staff of Unit 1 of the Mountain View Health Care Centre. You are to be commended for the special care you gave to our special lady when we know you must work under short staffing situations. You were wonderful! Many, many thanks to the Ladies of the Royal Purple for taking part in the service, for preparing the beautiful lunch, and to Bro. Elks for forming the Honour Guard with the OORP ladies. The excellent services of the Mountain View Funeral Chapel are also very much appreciated. Sincerely, Earl Phillips
Don & Mary Anne Phillips & family
Linda & Peter Wollman & family
Ruby & Emmert Gault
Elsie Phillips 30-1tp

We would like to thank everyone who came out to help with the Hallways of Doom this year. Without your help it would not have been a success. Thank you to all the businesses that donated materials and props. We really appreciate the donations. Thank you to all who came for the tours, we are sorry you had to wait so long but hope it was worth it. Over 500 people toured through and S.T.A.R.S. have received $650.58 as a result. Thanks again to all, we could not have done it without you. Larry and Grace Mullen 30-1tc

Thank you to our family, relatives and friends for making our 40th anniversary such a memorable one. May & Hank Braun 30-1tp

630 - CARDS OF THANKS

There are certain thoughtful people who know the special art of bringing joy to others sharing from the heart. Thank you to all our friends, neighbors and relatives for the help they gave Les, all the work done at the house, and for all the flowers, cards and visits during my illness. Words cannot express how your kindness was appreciated. Thank you. Rita Neumiller 30-1tp

A sincere thank you to the medical staff of Mountain View Health Care Centre, with special mention to the nursing staff. We appreciate the careful and loving attention Harvey received. The Palliative Care Unit was very precious to our family. Also, thank you to our family, friends and neighbours for the kind words of sympathy, prayers, support and understanding, and for the cards, flowers, food, and donations following the loss of husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather. Thank you to the Reverend John Orman for his comforting service; to Walter Snyder for his beautiful music; and to the Anglican Church Women for the bounteous lunch. Our hearts are full of gratitude to all of you. Dorothy Hosegood

640 - IN MEMORIAM

Clayton - In loving memory of Ed, husband of Helen, dear dad of Katharine, Charlotte and their families.

"There was no time to say good-bye, The day you went away. You left us all so suddenly, One year ago today. No one knows our heartaches, Only those who have lost can tell, Of the grief that we bear in silence, For the one we loved so well. 30-1tp Suchla - In loving memory of Andrew, Feb. 16, 1937 - Oct. 29, 1990.

"When family ties are broken, And loved ones have to part, It leaves a wound that never heals, And also broken hearts. Remembering you is easy, We do it every day, But missing you is a heartache, That never goes away." Forever loved and sadly missed, Pauline, Val, Rhonda, Sheila & Donna & families. 30-1tp

O.O.R.P. news

by A. Pringle
Special to the Review

Our meeting on Nov. 3 was a special one. In remembrance of our departed sister, Margaret Phillips, the Chaplain, Irene Dickau, gave an eulogy and the drill team participated in the draping of the Charter. Present for this ceremony was Earl, Linda, Don, Mary Ann, granddaughters Ruby and Emor Gault. She is sorely missed at our deliberations.

A business meeting followed, with arrangements being discussed for several caterings - Legion Supper on Nov. 13; Parkland on Nov. 20; Elks installation Nov. 27; Eastern Star Dec. 4 and our family Christmas Party Dec. 12, 2 p.m.

The family Christmas Party is an open invitation to all Elks and/or Royal Purple families. Santa will come, so if any one has youngsters there, please bring a Christmas gift for each one - then no child will be disappointed. A pot luck supper will follow at 4:30 p.m.

Shirley Ahlgrim has offered to organize a "Kids Bingo" day again - tentative date is Feb. 12, 1994.

Our next meeting will be Dec. 8 with visitors from our sister lodges.

Ramblers sweep two on the weekend

Special to the Review

The Didsbury Ramblers continued their winning ways on the weekend and swept a pair of games to run their recent win streak to 3 and 0.

Eager to avenge an earlier setback, the Ramblers visited Innisfail on Friday evening and easily dominated the game winning 13-5.

The local squad was full credit for their victory as they outplayed and outfought the opposition while continuing their torrid scoring pace of late.

Brent Youngs led the team with 3 goals and 3 assists while Scott Fisher, Kevin Benkie, Derek Howatt and Darren Dallas all added 2 goals each. Singles went to Gary Smith and Chris Skidmore.

Shots on goal favored the Ramblers 43-37 with the team leading by period scores of 3-0, 6-2, and 13-5 final.

The game took a turn for the worse in the latter stages and the Ramblers found themselves penalized for late game antics which resulted in suspensions for Sunday's game.

Newcomers Derek Howatt and Mike Hammel were both involved in late fights and were suspended for the matchup with Olds on Sunday.

Missing regulars from the lineup found the local squad not dressing a full contingent, depleting the bench strength and causing coach Bryan Latimer to do some line juggling against a much improved Olds hockey club.

The Ramblers struck early and often in the game against Olds as Scott Fisher proved to be a one man wrecking crew against the Elks in the first stages of the opening frame.

Fisher scored 3 times in a span of 3 minutes and 51 seconds to stake the Ramblers to a lead that would last the rest of the game.

The Rambler forward was playing with a new found intensity that unfortunately was short-lived when he was whistled down for a hit from behind penalty and banned for the remainder of the game. But the Ramblers managed to carry on without Fisher and their 2nd shorthanded goal of the period on Fisher's penalty with Gary Smith making a fine second effort to tuck a shot behind starting Olds netminder Kim Burke.

This goal would prove the end for Burke as Elks coach Barry Cross quickly relieved him in favor of backup Todd Vader.

Vader played admirably in holding the Rambler marksmen at bay and allowed only 4 goals on the next 33 shots making the game close for the visiting Olds team.

Other goal scorers for the Ramblers were Shawn Frenette with 2, while singles went to Darcy Stetz, Gary Smith and Chris Skidmore. Skidmore added 3 assists to give him a 4 point evening while Brent Youngs added 3 assists to his weekend output.

Captain Darren Dallas added 3 assists on Sunday to add to his team leading scoring pace.

The netminding duties were shared on the weekend by Rambler netminders Marty Krebs and Jason Bottril with Krebs picking up the victory in Innisfail and Bottril the win at home.

The Ramblers have been getting steadier goaltending of late which may attribute to their recent success and confidence in running their record to 5-2.

The next Rambler action is Sunday, Nov. 14 at 1:30 p.m. as the locals play host to the first place Millet Thunder at the Memorial Complex.

Shoot out

The Ramblers got some lucky breaks last Sunday and took advantage of the weak Elks defence when they played the Olds team at the Memorial Complex. The game was the second Ramblers' home game of the season. Next week's game will highlight the Calgary Flames with door prizes including Flames tickets, jerseys and other souvenirs.

This game is Flames Day with the team giving away jerseys, tickets to the Flames and souvenirs. Game board winners for Sunday were Marg Imler, Steve Filtmore and Krebs and McMahon.

Olds to present Shakespearian classic

This winter Olds residents will be treated to a touch of the Bard as the O.H.S. Drama Club performs Shakespeare's classic comedy, "A Midsummer Night's Dream".

This comedy, which celebrates life, love and laughter, is one of Shakespeare's shortest, but most popular plays. The story opens with an unhappy parent (Kathy Astle) who comes to the Duke of Athens (Mike Hart) to resolve a dispute she is having with her daughter (Marliss Weber) over her choice of a suitor. The two young men (Mike Leismaster and Tyler Watts) fighting to marry Hermia forget about Helena (Lindsay Pinnegar), a young woman pining away for a love of her own.

Meanwhile, in the woods lurk both the magical and mischievous. Oberon (Daniel Jefferies), the King of the woods, conspired with his henchman, Puck (Lauri Wischoff) to teach his rival (Sarah Graham) a lesson in love. He does this by transforming a silly, self-centered actor (Todd Reade) into a beast that his rival longs for. This bewilders the actor's travelling company who has come to Athens to perform a play for the Duke's ensuing marriage to his rival, Hippolyta (Erin Bannerman).

The opening twists and turns of this play have hilarious consequences, making this an entertaining evening for the young and old. The large cast and design crew are hard at work preparing a first-rate show. Tickets are reasonably priced; $3 for students/seniors and $5 for adults, and are available at the door and Value Drug Mart, starting November 5. Performances will take place on the Deer Meadow School stage at 7:30 p.m., Nov. 26 and 27. Call Bonnie Gratz at 556-3391 for more information.

Cremona minor hockey newsby Ryan Robertson
Special to the Review

On Halloween weekend most of the teams of Cremona Minor Hockey were turned loose on their newest season. The first results proved very interesting and gave all teams something to judge their play by.

On Friday night at home, the Bantams played host to Airdrie and a see-saw battle taunted the fans throughout. Cremona never led but overcame a one goal deficit three times before finally scoring the winning and only goal of the third period in edging their opposition 5-4.

As the sun rose on a nice Saturday morning of October 30th, the Dynamites donned their gear and did battle with Olds. Despite trailing 4-0 at one point, the eager Cremona crew battled gamely and at one point in the third led 5-4. Although eventually bowing 6-5, the team showed spunk and the noise level for this one was incredible. As I watched in awe at both equally matched teams going at it and having a lot of fun, I saw and felt the impact of why hockey is the greatest game in the world.

The Novice B's were next to show their stuff as they played host to Sundre. The outcome was a hard fought 3-1 victory for Cremona. Veteran players played key roles in the Cremona win. Defensively Kurtis Backstrom stopped all but one shot in the Cremona cage, while Dusty Ryan scored a pair and a singleton was added by Jesse Zintes. Good team play prevented a lot of serious Sundre threats.

In Cochrane, our Atom B's got a good taste of what they could expect this year in league play as they were shut-out by their southern counterparts. An early deficit was never erased but the team did steady itself to hold their own for a good part of the game. Keep working guys, it'll come.

So a busy first weekend comes to a close. A lot of excitement for players and fans alike. Yes folks, it's hockey season once again. The time when you are drawn to the local arena, it seems continually, but the bug has you and you won't fight it any more.

FOOTNOTE: The Dynamites game featured Cremona's first female referee in the person of Jennifer Solinas. She called a good game.

Hi and welcome back to another edition of the Den. I've been feeling a little guilty about the tough trivia questions I've thrown at you so far so this one will be a gimmie. What was the name of the 2 Alberta teams in the WHA? Sticking with hockey, and if you weren't at the Didsbury Ramblers home opener on the 31st shame on you. And if their exciting 8-7 win over Bashaw was any indication of the kind of action fans are in for, you don't want to miss any more. Speaking of exciting action, I see the Canadian Olympic team upset Sweden 3-1 in the opener of the Deutschland Cup in Germany. Most of the guys are the same ones we saw pound Norway in Didsbury so I'll keep you posted on their success...Over to the big boys of the NHL. I see Steve Larmer finally got his wish and was traded. I always thought he was kind of an intelligent guy but he actually wanted to go to New York and play for "Captain Hook" Mike Keenan. Oh well, nobody's perfect...

Over to baseball where the post-season awards are being passed out daily and there hasn't been many surprises. Jack McDowell got the nod as top AL pitcher. Greg Maddux won it in the NL for the 2nd straight year and Barry Bonds became the first to be named the Associated Press player of the year in consecu-

Star of the Week

Brian Forestell

Brian has been seen of late pounding the pavement of Didsbury as he struggles to overcome recent years of sloth and fine eating.

A former member of the University of Lethbridge running club, Brian anchored the Men's Cross Country running team in the late 1970s. Time spent on his subsequent marriage, new profession and children however took its toll on his finely tuned physique. Brian slowly became a BIG bearer of bulky briefs.

Not content with his hiatus from the running world and concerned about his burgeoning weight, Brian is now determined to regain his swift, svelte self.

3 more down, but still 5 to go

by Don E. Owchar
Review writer

You'd think that after winning 16 straight the Olds Grizzlys could ease up a bit and relax. Wrong! After 3 more wins last week the Griz are now (as of Nov. 4) only 5 away from tying the AJHL record for consecutive wins (21) set by the 1987-88 Calgary Canucks. Oh well. Keep on truckin' guys.

Oct. 30 - Olds 8, Fort Mac 2. This one will go down in the books as the Miro Skovira show. The slick Slovak scored the game's first 4 goals to put it away before the Oil Barons could even get out of the blocks. Josh Erdman with 2, Drew Ginther and Curtis Sheptak rounded out the Griz scoring. Kapfhamer and Romanchuk replied for Fort Mac.

Oct. 31 - Griz 7, Oil Barons 4. The Griz just about got the trick but thanks to 4 points by Captain Tyler Graham in the 3rd, ended up with the treat, a hard fought, come from behind victory. Trailing 3-2 going into the final 20 minutes, Graham exploded with 2 goals and 2 assists to lead the Griz to their 15th straight win. Miro Skovira also chipped in with a pair, giving him 6 on the weekend. Joe Murphy, John Pouzar and Drew Ginther added singles, Phillips, Aitken, Oliver and Fjallman replied for the Oil Barons.

Nov. 3 - Olds 2, Royals 0. This one was the kind real hockey fans dream about. A scorcher that went right down to the wire. Ian Perkins only faced 19 shots but stopped them all to lead the Griz to the nail biter victory. Miro Skovira (yes him again) scored the winner late in the 1st, then Joe Murphy iced it with an empty netter in the game's final minute. Des Christopher was outstanding in net for the Royals, kicking out 34 shots.

GRIZ NOTES...Tyler Graham set 2 milestones in Saturday's win over Fort Mac, racking up his 50th career goal and 100th assist...Skovira's recent scoring outburst has moved him a little closer to the league leaders. He's now only 10 back of Steve Walker and 9 away from Harry York, both of Bonnyville...Speaking of Walker, he's the AJHL Panasonic player of the month for October. The 20-year-old had 13 goals and 32 points in 10 games. The Grizzlys Miro Skovira and Ian Perkins were also in the running...The Griz next home game is Tuesday the 16th against the Royals.

Flipping back to winter sports for a second, congrats to Canada's Frederic Blackburn and Nathalie Lambert for winning the men's and women's titles at the Scandinavian Cup short track speed skating competition in Norway recently. If you've never seen short track action just picture pro wrestling on ice and that just about sums it up. Exciting is definitely the way to describe it!

O.K. That's it for now. I see the old temperature is dipping into the minus so maybe it's time to start preparing for winter. Bring on the mitts and touques but most important, hot chocolate! So long. Trivia answer...The Calgary Cowboys and Alberta Oilers. (Yes Alberta).

The death-defying log-rollers of the lumber industry

Alberta's turn-of-the-century real estate boom created a bonanza in the building trades, an insatiable demand for construction materials, and two promising new industries: brickmaking and cement production. The biggest demand, however, was for lumber. Building, railways, telegraph poles, board sidewalks all relied on Alberta-grown poplar, spruce, and tamarack, and imported B.C. fir, pine, and cedar.

As the railways forged ahead they created scores of new towns, many of which could boast a sawmill. The most dramatic aspect of lumbering was the spring drives that brought the logs down flooding rivers to the mills. For their hazardous occupation, wrote historian and ex-log driver Roy Devore, the drivers wore heavy mackinaw shirts and trousers, woolen underwear, several pairs of wool socks, and heavy boots with sharpened caulks screwed into the soles. The caulks bit into the wood as the rivermen leaped from log to log, using peavies or pike-poles to keep the float moving.

Missions

various places in the country.

The "Kick Off" service for Missions Month was held this past Sunday with Ken and Bev From. They recently returned to Didsbury from Nigeria where they spent several years working under the auspices of the Mennonite Central Committee.

This coming weekend will be one of the major events of the Missions Month. On Saturday, November 13th, the church will be hosting an area wide Missions Fest. Special missionary guests will include Robert Erion from Thailand who will be giving the opening address, Ted Veenstra from Brazil who will give the closing challenge, Peter Dennison from Nigeria and Grace Veenstra from Brazil who will be each conducting a seminar that day.

Seven additional seminars will be available to choose from and these will be conducted by representatives from different missions agencies. These missions agencies and others will have displays throughout the church giving information regarding their work. This Missions Fest will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and all are invited to attend. Lunch will be provided by the church.

This Sunday, November 14th, Peter Dennison will be sharing in the morning service and during the evening service, Robert Erion will be giving an update regarding his work in Thailand.

Remainder of Missions Month will include speakers Rev. Charles Carpenter, who is the Director of World Partners International and Pastor Steve Werdal, who will be sharing regarding their ministry among the natives in the North.

Often logs at the front of the float would jam and the whole river channel would suddenly clog with tangled, twisting timber, white water roaring through the gaps. Dynamite was one solution. Raw manpower was another, less damaging to the product but terribly dangerous. One second's hesitation, one misstep on the churning logs, meant death. No driver was really safe until quitting time.

There were other hazards. During the first drive of Calgary's Eau Claire lumber company, a boat failed to pull out above the Kananaskis Falls and was swept over the series of cataracts. It survived two of the cataracts, but splintered after the third and overturned in the boiling torrent. Three men made it to shore; six didn't.

In June, 1907 disaster struck on the North Saskatchewan River. Snow had been exceptionally deep in the mountains. When the mountain ice broke in mid-June the river rose nine feet within hours. The torrent smashed drive boats and dumped men among the now uncontrollable logs as they careered downriver. Still out of control, they swept into Edmonton and smashed through the booms intended to trap them at the mills. Twelve men were killed. Most of the winter cut was gone. Eventually 500,000 board feet were recovered at Battleford and sold there.

The day before he joined his first drive on the upper Red Deer River, Devore recalls, a young Scot had been caught in the logs and drowned, and rare was the day when a driver didn't fall in and get soaked. But the wet, sweat, and danger of the day's work gave way to lighthearted high-jinks. Log rolling (or burling) was a practised sport in which two men on the same log would each try to spin the other off.

Devore describes one championship contest between a Michigan riverman and a northern Ontario halfbreed; the men kept the log rolling for three-quarters of an hour until the halfbreed finally caught his opponent off-balance. Devore could recall it many years later. "The gestures and banter of partisan supporters, the open-mouthed delegation of farmers who lined the riverbank, the water flying upward from that spinning log, and the two dancing, evenly matched figures atop it."

Other jobs in the lumber industry could nearly match log driving for excitement; a stray spark could wipe out a sawmill, and logging

Roulston Museum news

Special to the Review

Carved In Stone

The Glenbow Museum comes to Carstairs when a special exhibition of stone carvings arrives on the 9th of November, 1993. The carvings will be on display from the 10th of November to the 1st of February 1994 at the Roulston Museum.

Since the earliest times, man has been attracted to colorful stones. Initially, these materials may have been used as dwelling decorations or personal adornments. They may also have been used for spiritual or religious purposes.

Many of these stones were used "as is" or were roughly polished and shaped. As skills and tools improved, the artisan expanded his or her talents and imagination to carving figures of plants, animals, and religious deities.

We urge everyone to come and see this very beautiful display! We are so fortunate to have displays of this calibre come to Carstairs for everyone to see.

The Museum will be open Wednesdays and Thursdays from 1:00 - 4:00 p.m. Closed Nov. 11 for Remembrance Day

For more information, contact the Roulston Museum at 337-3710.

Poetry award offers $500 in prizes

Sparrowgrass Poetry Forum is offering a grand prize of $500 in its new "Distinguished Poet Awards" poetry contest. Thirty-four other cash awards are also being offered. The contest is free to enter.

Poets may enter one poem only, 20 lines or less, on any subject, in any style. Contest closes Jan. 31, 1994, but poets are encouraged to send their work as soon as possible.

Poems entered in the contest also will be considered for publication in the Fall 1994 edition of Treasured Poems of America, a hardcover anthology to be published in August, 1994. Anthology purchase may be required to ensure publication, but is not required to enter or win the contest. Prize winners will be notified by March 31, 1994.

"Poetry is more popular than ever," says Jerome P. Welch, Publisher. "Our contest offers a public forum for new poets that allows them to share their work. We welcome poetry of all styles and themes. Many of our contest winners are new poets with new ideas."

Poems should be sent to Sparrowgrass Poetry Forum, Inc. Dept. NC, 203 Diamond St., Sistersville, WV 26175.

DID YOU KNOW?

MONKEYS OF ASIA AND AFRICA ARE GENERALLY MORE INTELLIGENT THAN THEIR AMERICAN-BORN COUSINS.

WE TEND TO ASSOCIATE BAGPIPES WITH SCOTLAND, BUT THEY ARE ALSO USED IN MANY OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD, INCLUDING AFRICA, INDIA, RUSSIA AND SEVERAL OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.

How was it invented?

We didn't always have refrigerators, TVs and microwaves. All of these were invented by imaginative people. Find out below how many everyday items and activities came about.

• Tires: Invented by John Boyd Dunlop in 1888. He was a horse vet and discovered the tire by accident when he tried to attach air-inflated rubber tires to the wheels of his son's bicycle.

• Duplicating machine: James Watt wanted to increase his business correspondence. In 1773 he invented a machine that reproduced several copies of one document.

- Ball-point pen: Invented in 1938 by H. Biro. This Hungarian journalist was impressed that ink dried so quickly and decided to try a prototype. He patented this now-essential item in 1943.

- Volleyball: William G.

Morgan, an American YMCA athletic instructor, first called the game "Mimonette" when he invented it in 1895.

• Thermometer: In 1612 the famous astronomer and physicist, Galileo, invented this necessary item. The medical thermometer, however, was invented in 1626 by an Italian physician, Santorius.

- Chiropractic: In 1897, an American hypnotist, Daniel David Palmer, founded the first school after having cured patients by putting pressure on their backs.

• Antibiotics: The moldy curd of soy beans appears to have been the first crude antibiotic; it was used by the Chinese about 500 B.C. for treating carbuncles, boils and related infections. The first modern antibiotic, penicillin, was discovered in 1928 by the Scottish bacteriologist Sir Alexander Fleming.

Very odd inventions

What'll they think of next? Below is a list of some unusual — but creative — inventions.

• High heels without soles: In 1982, Hollywood artist and inventor, Philip Gardner introduced this practical — yet fashionable — item. He claimed that the heels enabled style-conscious women to transform any flat-heeled shoe into a formal high-heeled one.

• Burglar trap: Emile Munz, a Swiss inventor, came up with a gadget that "hand cuffs" the wrists of would-be burglars. The user could either place them on either a doorknob or a safe.

• Shoes for walking on ceilings: John F. Heard, an American engineer, created "zero gravity shoes." Martin Aerospace Company perfected them in 1962.

• Anti-theft peppermill: A Swiss company called ECD Electronics designed this device to decrease thefts in restaurants.

Equipped with an alarm system, the peppermill is sensitive to change of light or temperature. So if it is put in a purse, for example, its sounder will go off and cause a very embarrassing scene for the thief.
